"Silence Of My Heart"

Visit "Silence Of My Heart" on MotoLyrics.com

The dawn is breaking
The world is shaking
Father, my heart is yours for the taking
I can't hold back now
It's way over due
How can you pull at me and pull at me
And still I can't seem to see?

Here I am, right next to you
The only thing between us is the silence of my heart
But, I'll break it and give it all to you
So, won't you take me, won't you make me
Into what you want me to be?

The day is looking brighter than it ever did before
Because I am yours and you are mine now
I will stand in you complete until the day you come
When I will stand before your throne
Humbled by your majesty alone

More of you and less of me
Is what I need it's what I need

I'll do anything for you
Go anywhere for you
Be anyone for you, Lord
