You can't take back an earthquake
I can't make the feelings fade
The firestorm is over now
They're tearing burning houses down

Nothing we can do to change the past we made the old mistakes
And now you feel the future fade
The love we had the promise made

I don't want to be alone with my thoughts
The sun goes down and your shadow is gone
Even I can't see in the dark
If only we'd met up in the park, those years ago

Failed love and faking friends
Why do I have to pretend
Nothing here could hurt me more
But it's not like we're keepin' score
I don't know if you know me
I don't know you it's plain to see
Maybe we should have coffee
But if you're broke the water's free

You will always be, so impossible to me
And you will always be the subject of my symphony
And I will walk alone
Down this quiet burnt out road
For now I'll walk away
But we'll meet again someday

If only I had spoken up
If only your dog would shut up
If only I could play again
If only I was calmer then
I can't stay stuck in the past
I'm growin' up, growin' too fast
I wasted time and now I see
It's too late, you can't save me
