broken
staring into nothing tomorrow I'm forgotten to you this emptiness
causing bruises
how can anyone use me
and then spit me out

how can you sleep
you make me heartbroken
you're cold inside
how can I be reaching

how can you sleep
you're cold inside
chocking
your love's the air
and it never lets me breathe I am too weak to pull this through and though I change my mind from time to time

how can you sleep
you're cold inside
