"End Or Beginning?"

Visit "End Or Beginning?" on MotoLyrics.com

Everytime in balance
Between light and darkness
As a tightrope walker
With naked foot on a razor's edge
I've though to lose the faith

Am I alive, am I dead
Something turns in my brain
Is it the end or beginning
I've lost my path

While I found an answer
A wall of questions
Stood up on my way
Then, an evening
While I was doubtful
Of my own life
I dived into the light

Is it a dream or reality
Do I exist?
Is it the end of beginning
I've lost my soul

This one
Whom everyone dreads
Porter of divine knowledge
Is only power and light
And sheds light on our path
