I see you with that young thing
All over town
Hard to believe for that
You put your old lady down
Hey Daddy, oh Daddy can't you see?
She's in love with your wallet
Not your personality

I know that you're grown
I know that she is too
But she is half your age
She's just a baby to you
Oh Daddy, oh Daddy can't you see?
She's in love with your wallet
Not your personality

She wants a sugar daddy
Just to pay her bills
She's barely middle aged
And you are over the hill
She'll take you for money
Push comes to shove
Money can buy a lot
But it won't buy you love
Oh Daddy can't you see?
She's in love with your wallet
Not your personality

You bought her fancy dresses
Gold and diamonds too
You even bought her a house
She gave it back to you
Oh Daddy, Daddy can't you see?
She's in love with your wallet
Not your personality

Look at all the money
That she's done spent
She's wasting all you saved
For your retirement
She'll take you for your money

Push comes to shove
Money can buy a lot
But it won't buy you love
Oh Daddy can't you see?
She's in love with your wallet
Not your personality

It's your money to burn
You can do what you choose
You've done a lot for her
But what's she done for you?
She'll take you for your money
Push comes to shove
Money can buy a lot
But it won't buy you love
Oh Daddy can't you see?
She's in love with your wallet
Not your personality
