How many people wanna get this started?
(You know who you are)
From the front to the back, do you want it?

This life is never simple
And never quite serene
The sky is open
But I can't believe it's open to me

This time I'm taking chances
The chance is all a dream
This time I'll pick up the pieces
Never really thought that I could feel this

How many people wanna get this started?
(Yeah! Yeah!)
From the front to the back, do you want it?
(Yeah! Yeah!)

Then listen to me step up
If you wanna feel this music
(Don't stop it, keep rockin')
Adrenaline phenomenon let's use it
(No need to prove it, just use it)

You know who you are
Deep down in your heart
You've come so far
(Don't you run of time it's now or never?)
(Bursting at the rest of your life forever)
You know who you are
Deep down in your heart
You've come so far
(Hold me back once that's a warning)
(Hold me back again then you will be sorry)

If I can take me somewhere
If I can find the means
If I can touch the things I
Never thought would be in my reach
My time is leaving me here

No friend of mine it seems
So I will pick up the piece
And never give it up since I can see this

How many people wanna get this started?
(Yeah! Yeah!)
From the front to the back, do you want it?
(Yeah! Yeah!)

Then listen to me step up
If you wanna feel this music
