We can try and talk but the fighting always gets in the way...
The crying never stops cause the fighting always gets in the way
There's no need to clean it up cause it's all running down the drain;
Everything is lost when it's all running down the drain;

We turn harmony into silence
Over love; the love; the love; the love
Which led harmlessly into violence;
Over love; the love; the love; the love

Hearts will always break
They're fragile in design

But I went and messed it up
I've gone and done it
I always hurt somebody when I fall in love
And that's just how it goes
I went and messed it up again..
I've gone and done it
I said it wouldn't happen again..
That's just how it goes
I said it wouldn't happen again
It's how it always goes
I said it wouldn't happen again

We pretend to get along but the smiles getting harder to fake
It's tough to play along when the smiles getting harder to fake
We're saying nothing's wrong all the while fading further away
Each day we carry on all the while fading further away

We turn harmony into silence
Over love; the love; the love; the love
Which led harmlessly into violence;
Over love; the love; the love; the love

Hearts will always break
They're fragile in design

I said it wouldn't happen again!
All the long nights that I missed
I said it wouldn't happen again!
All your painful loneliness
I said it wouldn't happen again!
All the broken promises
I said it wouldn't happen again!

It's how it always goes

I went and messed it up
I've gone and done it
I always hurt somebody when I fall in love
And that's just how it goes
I went and messed it up again!
I've gone and done it
I said it wouldn't happen again!
That's just how it goes
I said it wouldn't happen again...
It's how it always goes
I said it wouldn't happen again!
I said it wouldn't happen again
