When all is said and done
You're the only one
When all is said and done
You're the only one
You're the only one

Whoever said this pain
Would ever go away
Didn't know what it meant to
Be here without you

Is everything you see
Reminding you of me?
Does it hurt when you breathe too?
'Cause it does when I do
'Cause it does when I do

When anybody says your name
I wanna run away
I keep remembering
I can't forget you

It doesn't matter what I try
It happens anyways
It's been forever
And I can't forget you

With every single day
It won't go away
The way I feel about you
And when it's said and done
You're the only one

And I can't regret you
So I can't forget you

When all is said and done
You're the only one
When all is said and done
You're the only one
You're the only one

I hate to feel this way
My days all feel the same
And yesterday was proof
That tomorrow will too

No matter what they say
I can't drink it all away
'Cause all that I do
Is think about you
Is think about you

When anybody says your name
I wanna run away
I keep remembering
I can't forget you

It doesn't matter what I try
It's been forever

With every single day
The way I feel about you
And when it's said and done

And I can't regret you

Stop haunting my dreams
Please set me free
Stop haunting my dreams
Please set me free

When anybody says your name
I wanna run away
I keep remembering

It doesn't matter what I try
It happens anyways
It's been forever

With every single day
It won't go away
The way I feel about you
And when it's said and done

You're the only one
And I can't regret you

Stop haunting my dreams
I can't forget you
Please set me free
It's been forever and

Stop haunting my dreams
Please set me free
