September seventh and she's heading for school
She'll probably leave me, for some college fool
And I know, that's just the way it goes

In funny old place under the street light Face to face, here on our last night
You should know, one thing before you go

I tell her, we've gone too far to give up now
And like a bomb, it all comes out (I like the way that...)
She looks at me like nobody else, like nobody's ever
done
She makes me feel like nobody else, like nobody's ever
done

By the twenty-seventh she's been gone for weeks
I'm terrified she won't remember me
And I know, that's just the way it goes

I stare at her picture, stuck up on the fridge Face to face with the one I miss I'm alone, and reaching for the phone

To tell her, we've gone too far to give up now
And like a bomb, it all comes out (I like the way that...)

She looks at me like nobody else, like nobody's ever
done
She makes me feel like nobody else, like nobody's ever
done

And I wanna make her feel like nobody else, like
nobody's ever done
And I wanna make her feel like nobody else, like
nobody's ever done

Back from the city standing in the rain Asked if she'd be going back again
She said no, this time I'm staying home

She looks at me like nobody else, like nobody's ever

done
She makes me feel like nobody else, like nobody's ever
done
And I wanna make her feel like nobody else, like
nobody's ever done
And I wanna make her feel like nobody else, like
nobody's ever done

Like nobody I
Like nobody I
Love somebody like
Like nobody else

Like nobody I
Like nobody I
Love somebody like
Like nobody else
