Spanish lullabies, under moonlit skies, we found love
there

Dancing in the sand, walking hand-in-hand, both without a care

Haunted by a past, completely in our grasp, simply unaware

It's time to face (What this love has done to me)
I can't escape (Only your love can save me)

Chorus:

You're the only one who matters

You're the only one for me

Now I'm lonelier than ever

Only your love can save me

I've wanted this forever

But I want you all for me

You could put me back together

Only your love can save me

Each day I'm in hell, everyone can tell, by the look on my face

Not one day goes by, that I don't wonder why, don't believe it's fate

It's time to face (What this love has done to me)

I can't escape (Only your love can save me)

Chorus:

You're the only one who matters

You're the only one for me

Now I'm lonelier than ever

Only your love can save me

I've wanted this forever

But I want you all for me

You could put me back together

Only your love can save me

Only your love can save me

(Only your love can save me)

Chorus:

You're the only one who matters
You're the only one for me
Now I'm lonelier than ever
Only your love can save me
I've wanted this forever
But I want you all for me
You could put me back together
Only your love can save me
Only your love can save me
