I got a screw thread
Running through me
And when you turn it
I can see that it bleeds

I got a clothes peg
Holding part of me shut
And when you move it
All my hurt opens up

Like mosquitoes you feed on red to bleach the white
out
You seem obsessent like a virus
You seem obsessed with burning my world
To bleed on me

I got a land mine
Trapped under my foot
I know you'll move it
To show the world all my guts

Like mosquitoes you feed on red to bleach the white
You seem obsessent like a virus
You seem obsessed with burning my world
To bleed on me

And like mosquitoes you feed on red to bleach the white out
You seem obsessed with being viral
You seem obsessed with breaching my world
