Weeping with you. Arms around them
Keeping with you. Feeling their shiver
Flowing with you. Without your men
Drowning with you. Deep in this river

Tired and lonely. Sitting and staring
Weak and filthy. No longer caring
Wasting to nothing. The rubble of you
Hoping for something. Poison where love grew

She is broken
People. Feel her mind
People. Fill your eyes
Her body is broken

Leave me be, with my memories
I can still see all the lovers of me

I still know those feelings
You're still mine, my lover
I watch over you
No sorrow. Please, no tears
Goodbye my lover

Holy and fallen. Watch yourself die
Years, and still weeps. Never forgotten
Long lost the fight
Tremble to sleep. Her man long gone
