I'll dance with you when its ready and don't take your tears for my own we'll watch the sun every morning and don't ever leave you alone you know I've only got best intensions but I'll more than likely break your heart but I'll glue it back again with a memory I swear I'll replace every part

'cos I'm just as messed up as the next guy I cant help but walk the side insanity there's something growing brighter in the corner of your mind
and I cant help but hope that its me
well laugh for hours at nothing and you'll hold my hand in a way that lets me know were unstoppable what ever comes our way And don't but for now we live in side we have a dream I don't want to catch you when your falling I want the fall to happen just to me

'cos I'm just as messed up as the next guy
I cant help but walk the side insanity
there's something growing brighter in the corner of
your mind

'cos I'm just as messed up as the next guy
I cant help but walk the side insanity
there's something growing brighter in the corner of
your mind
and I cant help but hope that its me no I cant help but hope that its me
