Your eyes are like a tidal wave taking me out
And there's nothing I can do
I'm a shooting star that's headed for earth
I'm gravitating straight to you

It's getting hard to hide this condition I'm in
You've been reeling me in and everybody knows it
I hate it when you leave me
And baby I've been dreamin'
That maybe you've been feelin' it too

Forever is a lonely word
In a sentence without me and you
If you look it up you'll see
In my dictionary
That underneath forever
There's a picture of you and me

I'm hearing music playing loud in my heart
Every time you walk through the door
I'm just as typical as everyone else
But with you I feel like so much more

It's getting hard to hide this condition I'm in
I don't want to pretend so now I've got to tell you
Exactly how I'm feeling, and baby I've been thinking
My hand would look so awesome in yours
