Oh oh
Yeah yeah
Yeah yeah yeah
Oh oh~

In the beginning, you and I were meant to be Communicating was easier than 1-2-3
But now we're missing, something that we just can't see
The bridge is burning, the bridge is burning

I lie awake and wonder "where did we go wrong? "
Get out of bed and drift into another song
Try to get back to the place where you and I belong
The bridge is burning, the bridge is burning

Can we stop the fire before we get hurt?
Can we turn around and see what we've learned?
I'm standing at the edge, just looking at the bridge
It's burning, burning

Can we find a way before we get lost?
Can we figure out the price and the cost?
I'm standing at the edge, just looking at the bridge
It's burning, burning

I catch your eye just in time to see you look away
Reaching for words, but still don't know just what to say
Holding on to the remnants of yesterday
The bridge is burning, the bridge is burning

Is this where it's going? Do we part as friends?
Or can we bring it back to the start from the end?
Does it take falling out of love to fall in love again?
Oh, the bridge is burning, the bridge is burning

Can we stop the fire before we get hurt?
Can we turn around and see what we've learned?
I'm standing at the edge, just looking at the bridge
It's burning, burning

Can we find a way before we get lost?
Can we figure out the price and the cost?
I'm standing at the edge, just looking at the bridge
It's burning, burning

(Love, oh why? Oh why?)
Why does it hurt so bad sometimes?
(Love, oh why? Oh why?)
Why does it hurt so bad sometimes?
(Love, oh why? Oh why?)

Can we stop the fire before we get hurt?
Can we turn around and see what we've learned?
I'm standing at the edge, just looking at the bridge
It's burning, burning

Can we find a way before we get lost?
Can we figure out the price and the cost?
I'm standing at the edge, just looking at the bridge
It's burning, burning

(Yeah yeah yeah [x3])
Can we stop the fire before we get burned?
