My love is gone
My heart is empty from it
I just can't rise above it
It's gone gone gone

So I'm done
Lord I'm so tired of running from it
To keep from falling in it
I'm done done done

Now you're mine
And I just can't remember
What I've been afraid of all this time
It feels so fine
That I'm willing to surrender forever
I'm gone
Gone gone gone

I was wrong
For thinking it was hopeless
Oh that heartache would be endless
I was wrong wrong wrong
So wrong

Now you're mine
And I just can't remember
What I've been afraid of all this time
It feels so fine
That I'm willing to surrender forever
I'm gone
Gone gone gone
So gone, baby

I knew I was out running love
But I can't keep running fast enough
Since you're here all my fear is gone
