"Walls"

Hey
You put your life on a cloud
You put it right next to me
And then you walked straight away
What does this mean?
Am I to be scared?
Are you looking back to see if I've gone?
Haven't you heard?
I can walk through walls

And I
I should be screaming aloud
But I'm holding it in
'Til I see you again
How long can you bleed
Until your heart runs dry?
Are you looking back to see if I've passed?
Haven't you heard?
I survived the blast

Haven't you heard?
Haveb't you heard?
Haven't you heard?
I survived the blast
