Three years, seventeen weeks, and two days and there you are
And you cautiously wonder if maybe it's something more
So shine a light on the fire you can't ignore
'Cause I'm dying to put my hand in yours
A drive on the weekend takes me to where you are

And so I run to you, baby won't you run to me?
I run to you, you're everywhere I wanna be

When we speak with no words
Can't believe what I heard
You're the last and the first
It's just Jenny and I know

When I can't get too close and I want you the most
Here she comes, there she goes
It's just Jenny and I know

Three years, seventeen weeks, and two days and here we are
Yeah we danced and we laughed
And it's taking me back to Main Street and Tiffany's
Your pictures and memories

And I run to you, baby won't you run to me?
I run to you, you're everywhere I wanna be

When we speak with no words
Can't believe what I heard
You're the last and the first
It's just Jenny and I know

When we can't get too close and I want you the most
Here she comes, there she goes
It's just Jenny and I know
Jenny and I know
Whoa

There you are, there you are
Yeah, you're beautiful

There you are, there you are
Yeah, you're everything I want
There you are, there you are
Yeah, it's beautiful
There you are, there you are
Yeah, it's everything I want
There you are, there you are
Yeah you're beautiful
There you are, there you are
(Yeah, you're everything I want)

When we speak with no words
Can't believe what I heard
You're the last and the first
It's just Jenny and I know

When the times are their worst
And we cry and it hurts
You're the last and the first
You're just Jenny and I know

When we speak with no words
Can't believe what I heard
You're the last and the first
It's just Jenny and I know

When I can't get too close and I want you the most
Here she comes, there she goes
It's just Jenny and I know

Jenny and I know
Jenny and I know
Jenny and I
