It's like we're standing outside while they're looking out the window
Picking up pace, losing control
Of all the things we are, all the things we know, it's like ay ay, it's like ay ay It's like I just couldn't care less, but I'm wrapped around her finger
Started placing all my bets the day that we met And staying up to late, the way you make me wait, it's like ay ay (it's like ay ay)

Don't you know if you go
You'll go without me
Don't you leave me as if you never cared at all
If you go, don't go, go without me
Don't you need me?

So say, ay ay, ay ay, you are my everything Just say, ay ay, ay ay, I'm hanging onto every word that you said
A part of me will never be the same

It's like she takes me up to ten, but she leaves me at eleven
Now you're telling all your friends everything you intend
All the things you do, I love the way you move, it's like ay ay (it's like ayy) Ooooh, she wears that little black dress, always simple, but it's sexy
I need you in your best so I won't forget All the way, say that you love me, gotta hear you say it, ay ay, ay ay ayy,

Don't you know, if you go
You'll go without me
Don't you leave me as if you never cared at all.
If you go, don't go, go without me
Don't you need me? (need me?)

So say, ay ay, ay ay,
You are my everything

Just say, ay ay, ay ay,
I'm hanging onto every word that you said
A part of me, will never be the same

Say so, just say so, just say so,
Say so, just say so, just say so,
Say so, just say so, just say...

You are the light up ahead at the end of the road
When I look in your eyes, girl, it feels like I'm home I need this night, yes it's late, but the morning will come
As you fall fast asleep with your head on my chest I watch you breathe in and out as you're finding your rest
I need this night, yes it's late, but the morning will
come

So say, ay ay, ay ay,
You are my everything.
Just say, ay ay, ay ay,
So say, ay ay, ay ay,
You are my everything
Just say, ay ay, ay ay,

So say, ay ay, say ay ay ay,
You are my everything baby,
So say, ay ay, say ay ay ay,
I'm hanging on to every word that you said,
No part of me, will ever be,
No part of me, will ever be,
No part of me, will ever be, the same.
