I'm sorry Mrs. Davenport
I broke your daughter's heart in two
And I swear I'll pay for it

But I was just a child then
When you caught me that day
At the scene of her demise

You make it easy, to say goodbye for good
You make it easy, to say goodbye to you
I never meant to do it
It never should have gone like that
I'll never speak for you

Just let her know I'm sorry
And tell her that I won't come back
She'll never hear from me
