You sent me back to where I belong
I've run these tracks for far to long
I know that you'll change your mind
But I'll be gone

There came a time, where I should of said
This isn't working but I didn't dare
I always wanted you to care
But I should have known
Well I should of known

Put me back in my rightful place
You told me
There's no divider
Between love and hate
You said that
I should stop dreaming and we could escape
Some day
Cause we couldn't get away

I never thought we'd end up like this
All of these broken stereotype
I thought we could resist
There was something i had missed
But I should of known
I should of known

Put me back in my rightful place
You told me
There's no divider
Between love and hate
You said that
I should stop dreaming and we could escape
Some day
Cause we couldn't get away

Break:
I think its time that I was gone
It's true that I cant face up to what we've become
I know I need to get away
You said the things that I thought you would never say
You sent me back to where I belong

You told me everything I ever said was wrong
I wish that I could get away
You said the things I thought you would never say

Put me back in my rightful place
You told me
There's no divider
Between love and hate
You said that
I should stop dreaming and we could escape
And we couldn't get away

You sent me back to where I belong...
