Visit "Your Star" on MotoLyrics.com

I can't see your star
I can't see your star
though I patiently waited, bedside, for the death of today
I can't see your star
the mechanical lights of Lisbon frightened it away

and I'm alone now
me and all I stood for
we're wandering now
all in parts in pieces, swim lonely
find your own way out

I can't see your star
how can the darkness feel so wrong?

we're wandering now
find your own way out

So far away
its growing colder without your love why can't you feel me calling your name?
can't break the silence its breaking me

all my fears turn to rage and I'm alone now me and all I stood for

all in parts and pieces, swim lonely
find your own way out
