Come on, say it again
you keep on pushin' away you tear my inside out
'cause it's numb with the pain

Come on hurt me some more with all of your lies saying that you never loved me (loved me) by the look in your eyes

'Cause you love me then hate me and make up the next day then break me to pieces again and time after time you play my mind but I can't let you do it again

Well it's over, I'm every little thing that you said all the time
that you broke me down
you made me believe I can't go on, oh no

Oh it's over
there's no reason to lie every time that I see your face when we pass on the street and I can't even say hello well I know it's over

you keep on slugin' away you turn it all around so your not left to blame

Oh come on give me some more I love your beautiful words you know I love when you tell me what am I good for

that you broke me down

and time after time you play my mind

that you broke me down

when we pass on the street I can't even say hello well I know, say it again

Come on say it again

Come on say it again and again and again and again and again...

Oh it's over!
