I was lyin' back on the sand. Just lyin' there in the sun.
I wanted to enjoy myself. I wanted to have some fun.
Just lyin' there by the ocean thinkin' about good times.
I wish I had you next to me, with your hand in mine.
Oh...
No one has ever been so good to me but you... Diana...
There is nobody that I'd rather be with but you... Diana...
Since you've been gone, my heart cries for you...
Diana...
People walk by, and my eyes see only you... you...
Diana, yeah...
