So far, so fun, the cops done run us off of the DQ lot Burned a tank up, dang near drank up all of the beer we bought Trucks done covered up in mud, can't see a drop of paint
Down to three dollars, Lord, a whole lot of hell's already been raised
And

The night ain't over yet, there's a whole lot of moonlight left
To do things we might regret tomorrow morning
You'd think it's crazy as it's gonna get but the night
ain't over yet

Tore up the town, already closed down two or three honky-tonks
Bill fought wrong guy, left with a black eye, had to pull him off Talked Beth and Sue out of their Daisy Dukes and into a skinny dip Ought to be worn out, we're just about to catch our second wind

The night ain't over yet, there's a whole lot of
You'd think it's crazy as it's gonna get but the night
ain't over yet

First one yawning, they'll be walking We ain't stopping till sunrise
So hold on tight

The night ain't over yet, there's a whole lot of
To do things we might regret tomorrow morning
Ain't no bail been made, no rights been read Tammy's still got her top on her Corvette
But the night ain't over yet
