Like the sun in the sky keeps burning, it all comes back to you.

In just ten minutes this turned around, making me crazy, just bringing me down,

A whole ten minutes of co-op was fine, me and my head and love on my mind.

Wasn't it love that made you cry? I know about, coz he cried to the sky,

It'll all come back to you, come back to you.

Chorus:

Like the sun in the sky keeps burning, it comes around,
And it all comes back to you.

No, you're never alone, though you feel that's what it is,

Well, it all comes back to you.

Every woman and child, every father and son,

Yes, it all comes back to you.

All it takes is a moment to stop, taking it all in and back to the top,

I thought that we could move on, it's been over and still for too long.

Wasn't it love that passed you by, held you in its arms and made you cry,

It'll all come back to you, come back to you.

Chorus

And I'm turning around and I'm making the same mistake,

And however you go, you will always find.

That it all comes back, yes, it all comes back,

Yes, it all comes back to you.

Chorus x2

Yes it all comes back to you.
