Come in closer, keep your voice low
you might hear the sound, two hearts pounding to the beating of the drums the slide, is too familiar now.
It's like the evening was just waiting for this single act, and our bodies hesitating to be played in fact we both agreed that...

We could go down softly, or harder now,
and I'm feelin loud!

And I see what you want in your life
that movie kind of ending,
like you're watching you on the big screen...

They call you the courier, of Death!
Dream Killer, Heart chiller, you poisoned my sleep,
But if I'm suppose to trust you, then we've gotta set some ground rules...
so i say...
We could go down softly, or harder now,
and I'm feelin loud!

And I see what you want in your life
that movie kind of ending,
like you're watching you on the big screen,
Baby believe me I want the same as you but I, have a plan to make it yours to make it mine.

Bite your tongue,
You don't know what I'm made of.
So carry on preaching salvation.
IF you're the queen then unless Im wrong,
That makes me the pawn,
that makes me your pawn...
