Let us know your story
as a double-faced dream
An unstable scene
He doesn't lose hope and spouting poetry in one tiny corner of the world

Let us know that you are hopelessly in love with someone
A racehorse with no legs
The repeated same dream
A butterfly appeared and fluttered between you and him

Do you believe what I said many years ago?
Will you tell us the secret of happiness?
Tell us the secret of happiness

All things are one
He loves in order to be loved
Frightened children
They cry for the moon?
Am I your confidant?
The world has spoken many languages

Do you believe what I said many years ago?
Will you tell us the secret of happiness?
Tell us the secret of happiness
