Daydream, why do you haunt me so

Deep in a rosy glow

The face of my love you show

Daydream, I walk along on air

Building a castle there

For me and my love to share

Don't know the time, lordy

I'm in a daze

Sun in the sky, while I moon around, feeling, hazy

Daydream, don't break my reverie

Until I find that he,

Is daydreaming just like me

sax solo

Daydreams, why do you haunt me so

While I'm in this rosy glow

Bring back my love

Bring back my love

Bring back my love

To me
