Hear the Sound? I want that Sound, Hallelujah
I'll wear that Sound out, Hear it again...
Hear the Sound? I want that Sound, Hallelujah,
I'll wear that Sound out, Hear it again...
People will I be willing?
I don't know if luxury is such a goal
Say, have you an aversion to investing in a soul?
You can all make a killing, but I don't know about this planet anymore...
You can hear that Sound if you want that Sound
Aware that Sound might heal you again
You can hear that Sound if you want that Sound
Aware that Sound might heal you again, I mean...
Hear the Sound? I want that Sound, Hallelujah,
I'll wear that Sound out, Hear it again...
Avarice is nutrition?
I don't know a metaphor for any meal
You compare an epiphany to the ringing of a till
Earn a life, earn a living, I don't know
Read Matthew 19:23
You can hear that Sound if you want that Sound
Aware that Sound might heal you again, I mean...
Hear the Sound? I want that Sound, Hallelujah,
I'll wear that Sound out, Hear it again...
How will I know??
