When we first saw Aldous Snow
We knew then that we had to know
Just who was this wildly-haired man
And so began love of the Brand
So we watched interviews on TV
Fell in love with your personality
You're the best thing that's happened to us

We love you, we need you we can't Keep going on without you, and
Hope some day you'll understand
We're your biggest fan, Russell Brand

We got a ticket to see you live
The fixed seating was too contrived
So we stood on our seat to convey
A love that they can't take away
So we got thrown out on our ass
But using all of our panache
We managed an all-access pass

CHORUS

When we met you after a gig
It seemed the whole system was rigged
We'd never been thought as the sort
That would require police escort
We just wanted a hug, so be fair
We've been through a lot to get there
At least we got a lock of your hair

CHORUS

We know how to make you love us
With the use of an effigy
Revival of an ancient craft
And we'll be the last one to laugh
So love us or we'll bring you pain
A needle shoved right through your brain
So tell us that you feel the same
