Chance are you won't find me
Shinin' on the movie screen
Stepping out of some limousine
On the red carpet with a beauty queen
I may never have a billboard top ten hit
A party at Hugh's with the playboy chicks
But that alright cause I'll admit that I am

A little more country than you're use too
A little more cowboy than the next dude
I may get a little wild and crazy sometimes
And drink more than I should do
But I try my best though I'm different I guess
Some folks won't understand
When it's all said and done
I'm just another man

There's a lot of things I won't do
But one day maybe
I'll do a duet with kid rock or slim shady
Tell the world how their crazy
This hayseed os facing the basic amazing
Truth that I believe that the coolest things of seen
In Pammy's double D's in a dirty magazine
That's just being me
And one think I know it that I'm probably

A little more country than you're use too
A little more cowboy than the next dude
I may get a little wild and crazy sometimes
And drink more than I should do
But I try my best though I'm different I guess
Some folks won't understand
When it's all said and done
I'm just another man
