I don't feel too safe here, could you please take my hand
I'm slowly slipping in and I need someone like him.

[Chorus]

In the night, we fall fast asleep
And I get so cold without you here, no not in my arms
Are you real, or are you just a dream
Cuz it's not fair if you're not here

Where am I, with the lights off? My shivers are spreading thin
I'm standing on a bridge, no end and no clear beginning.

[Chorus]

But it's ok
It's alright
If I wake up singing

[Chorus]
