"Walking"

I walked down the road twice
And came back around again
But nothing changed, it's no surprise
Not this time, not ever
Not this life, no never

I walked down the road twice
And came back around again
But nothing changed, it's no surprise
Cuz I couldn't open my own eyes
I couldn't see what I couldn't realize

That you've got to try to find happiness
You've got try to find happiness

I walked down the road twice
And came back around again
And everything changed, Oh what a surprise
I finally opened my eyes
And I took in all that I realized

That you've got to try to find happiness
Yes, You've got to try to find happiness
