

Forever It Shall Be "Breathe Faith"

Throughout the centuries, this lesson should be learned
History must not repeat, eliminate commencements
This lesson's better be learned by all mankind

To speak up in our darkest days
To stand up for your believes
Against the majority paralyzed in silence
Against those mouthing along their lies

Your legacy will serve as an example to us
When dehumanized hands spread their seed
Our words will be the weapon, our actions will be the Fuel
To ignite all hearts

Breathe hope in times when all seems fallen apart
Breathe faith in times when all hope seems lost

Never forgotten, your legacy will be our example
