Keep your mind stayed on freedom
Keep your eyes on the prize
Keep your arms open to receive
All of life's blessings

Keep your heart always singing
So your light shines through
Keep your love in the middle
Of everything you do

Give all your love to glory
Lay every burden down down down
Judge not your brothers
They're doing their best just like you

Give thanks when you're happy
And when you're feeling blue
Keep your love in the middle
Of everything you do

When I heard my mother sing these words
From the other side
I knew love knows no distance
Oh the River Jordan's deep and wide

I can't hear my mother singing watching over me
From the other side
And I know that love makes no difference
To the River Jordan's deep and wide

Keep your feet on the high road
Don't let the world wear your soul thin
Keep your hands ready to reach out
To help a friend

Keep your heart always singing
So your light shines through
And keep your love in the middle
Of everything you do

Got to keep your keep love in the middle
Of everything you do
