No one ever told you,
I love to hear ya sing.
No one dressed you up in silk,
And flashy diamond rings.

Ah but someone feeling sorry,
Is one thing you despise.
You don't need no man to sympathise.

Chorus:

Mustang heart, wild and free
You're working on another six pack,
Ya kick back, and tear another hole in your jeans.
You're breaking down the fences,
Around you constantly
Mustang Heart, mustang heart,
I see the me in you,
Can you see the you in me.

When I left you with your mama,
I left tear's behind.
Still I'd know your smile anywhere,
I've framed it in my mind.

I wish I could do it over,
I know where I'd begin,
Just you and me,
Runnin' with the wind.

Repeat Chorus

Instrumental

Mustang heart!
Mustang heart!
I see the me in you,
Can you see the you in me.

I see the me in you,
