I've heard all the stories, the failure and glories I haven't had either.
Boast and toast I'm the best and I'm a mess. I know I'm not neither. Thought I was down as far as any man could go, thought my highs were giant size. I know now that's not so. I know you heard, know you heard, know you heard, Don't believe a word, not a wrod, one word. It's been overblown, the truth Should be known 'til now I couldn't see. Put my cards on the table while I'm still able, I guess I really don't know how to party. It's blown out of whack, The truth is what's lacking, 'til now I couldn't see. The long and the short I'd like to report, I guess I really don't know how to party. Really don't by Any shape or form. Whether straight up in the sunshine or passed out in the Storm don't know how but now I know I don't will it help me out? No, it Probably won't. Ten nine ain't no hero number one at bad behavior. Five, four, Three, two, what? not zero. Don't go counting on a savior. I was playing it Safe when I'd fall on my face. Entertainment was what I was after, harmless Fun, no damage done. I was out and about for the laughter. Thought I was some-Thing really something no one was gonna touch. Ace in the place, kingpin of Sin I didn't know too much. Don't believe everything you've heard, don't Believe a solitary word. It's been overblown, the truth should be known, 'til Now I couldn't see. Put my cards on the table while I'm still able I guess I Really don't know how to party. Really don't by any shape and form. Whether Straight up in the sunshine or passed out in a storm, don't know how but now I Know I don't. Will it help me out, no it probably won't. I don't have a notion And I don't have a clue, an iota or an inkling where to start or waht to do.

The foggiest, the faintest, the slightest I ain't got. Will it help me out?
Nah, probably not.
