Should have known from the go
Was always you
Wanted in my thoughts,
Hoping I'll find you naked, whoa
If her heart tumbles, falls and then breaks
Point down finger share the blame with me, yeah
We can ignore or try,
My conscience got the best of me
I see this swarm of red lights
Why do I care like?
It plays over and over and over in the back on my mind
I said it's over now
So why should I care?
We're boat breathing bad and why should I keep p the fight

So you should come, over now
Get over my, soul now
So you should hang, over now
She gonna kill you
Once she find, once she find, once she find out
She gonna kill you
Once she find, once she find, once she gonna want out

Calm down for heaven's sake
This time I won't hesitate, whoa
Saw the apple, took a bite
Though it was wrong, felt so right, whoa,
My conscience got the best of me
I see this swarm of red lights
Why do I care like?
It plays over and over and over in the back on my mind
I said it's over now
So why should I care?
We're boat breathing bad and why should I keep p the
fight

So you should come, over now
Get over my, soul now
So you should hang, over now
She gonna kill you

Once she find, once she find, once she find out
She gonna kill you
Once she find, once she find, once she gonna want out

Stay into my bedroom tonight
Reach out for my hand ain't hard to find
Babe don't fight it, it's never felt so right
Don't you think we deserve, to love, to love, another round
Let's start it off

So you should come, over now
Get over my, soul now
So you should hang, over now
She gonna kill you
Once she find, once she find, once she find out
She gonna kill you
Once she find, once she find, once she gonna want out.
