Oh you should've seen the girl I was with last night
And you should've seen me tremble when I held her tight
Passion got me locked and it was like grip
I burned all over when I kissed her sweet lips
Find the rainbows end in that pot of gold
Oh her love is more than a mind can hold
I filled my life for the very first time
Know I might goin' out of my mind
I'm in love (I'm in love baby I'm in love)
I'm in love (I'm in love baby I'm in love)
I know now what dreams are made of
I found a heaven when I found that girl I'm in love [ steel ]
Well I never felt the feeling like this before
Heaven up above must've opened the door
This part of life is a taste of love
I just discovered me a brand new world
I'm in love (I'm in love baby I'm in love)...
