Tried taking it to the next
When you got to talking to me
Taken on out of context
I guessed it I guess gradually
Point-blank and period punctuate
Whatever which way you're at
Trying to really relate
It means less than little than that

Not to me on that night at least
Not to me not on that night
That's when the sanity ceased
And I noticed that something's not right

Means more than that though to me
I had to maintain and compose
How could this possibly be
Now you hope that nobody knows
More of a rumor than fact
The fact was I couldn't get through
How high the odds could be stacked
More over nobody knew

Not to me on that night at least
Not to me not on that night
That's when the sanity ceased
And I noticed that something's not right
I noticed something was wrong
And I took it seriously
I should have known all along
On that night not to me

You had had nothing to say
But it took several hours to say it
I left there wondering were you okay
If you weren't why didn't you say so

Not to me on that night at least
Not to me not on that night
That's when the sanity ceased
And I noticed that something's not right

Not to me on that night at least
Not to me not on that night
That's when the sanity ceased
And I noticed that something's not right
I noticed something was wrong
And I took it seriously
I should have known all along
On that night not to me
