From the impression that I get uk import single

Not an individual
Just one of the sheep
? not at all
But ? you face the wisdom
And it's a major concern
So they rescue everyone but you
There's a lot you gotta learn
Never ending education
A welcomed wake up call
Arriving at the realization
I might not know it all
Trying hard to be different ?
So there's no misconceptions
But it's never too late
To realize that what you think you know
Is unjustified
Wake up and get up
Step up or step aside
Never ending education
A welcomed wake up call
Arriving at the realization
I might not know it all
Never ending education
A welcomed wake up call
Arriving at the realization
I might not know it all
Think you got the answers
And still never have a clue
Noone's got this all worked out
Don't want to see clear that you
Don't want to start to search and find
You search and carry on
Now there's no lineup on the line
The line's not clearly drawn
Never ending education
A welcomed wake up call
Arriving at the realization
I might not know it all
Never ending education

A welcomed wake up call
Arriving at the realization
I might not know it all
Never ending education
A welcomed wake up call
Arriving at the realization
I might not know it all
