Red rose stuck me again
Red blood shows where Ive been
This woman to blame
But I stay and its all the same

Pretty angel drown me again
For Ive fallen into sin
But Im not what you claim
But I listen and alls the same

Oh crossroads
let me go.
By now you should know
That this troubled soul
Has nowhere to go.

Nowhere to go

Forgive me for the time
I almost lost my mind
Laughing at the rain
But I laugh and all is just the same

Oh crossroads
Let me go
By now you should know
This troubled soul
Has nowhere to go.
