Well every time you said goodbye
I always knew you'd be back tomorrow

Well this time somethings different somethings wrong
Cause there's way to much sorrow

If this is the walkaway
I hope the clouds all turn gray
Cause I still love you
But you just don't feel that way

Well I guess its time
To say goodbye
But don't expect these eyes of mine to be dry

And if I could change everything in the world
I'd start with you girl

If this is the walkaway
I hope the clouds all stay gray
Cause I still love you
But you just don't feel that way
And it hurts so bad to say
That you just don't feel that way
