I wish i told you that i loved you more
Keep thinking 'bout the things i should have thanked you for
But know you've dissappeared through heaven's door
I wish i told you that i loved you more
It broke my heart to say goodbye
But you were ready to give up this life

You're in a brighter place
No pain no tears just grace
You're home
You're home
You can rest your weary heart
You're safe in loving arms
You're home
You're home
At last

You showed me everything that love could be Always inspired and encouraged me
You were the flower on this family tree
You saw the good that
No one else could see
It broke my heart to say goodbye
But you taught me so much through your life

You're in a brighter place
No pain no tears just grace
You're home
You're home
You can rest your weary heart
You're safe in loving arms
You're home
You're home
At last

You're young and strong again
Sleep sweet in Jesus hands
Your love will never end
Your legacy will stand
So can you hear me now

Up in the fathers house
My deepest prayer is that
My life will make you proud

You're in a brighter place
No pain no tears just grace
You're home
You're home
You can rest your weary heart
You're safe in loving arms
You're home
You're home
At last
