Remember the first time we met
Big glasses and without any care
You liked me exactly how I was
And I saw love

Remember all the nights we spent
Toned your heart, we were the best of friends
We knew that there was so much more than we
We let it come

The more your pants are low
And let your head so high
You get my heart in your hand
You held so tight

Oh-oh oh-oh, you drivin' me crazy
My whole, my whole body is shaking
I wear my heart on my sleeve
Because according to me
Oh-oh oh-oh, you have everything

I miss all the faithful games you play
And all the nights on the summer break
We would sit trying to find every sun
We saw them all

You told me that I could be the one
And I really, really believed in love
I still miss the way you kiss me
And beneath the sun

Broke down on the wall
I threw my necklace up
Everything that I was afraid of
I gave up cause

Oh-oh oh-oh, you drivin' me crazy
My whole, my whole body is shaking
I wear my heart on my sleeve
Because according to me
Oh-oh oh-oh, you have everything

Your big brown eyes
Format my mind
When you know you know
I miss your laugh
Calling your mind
I know, I know
You know, baby, let's go

Oh-oh oh-oh, you drivin' me crazy
My whole, my whole body is shaking
I wear my heart on my sleeve
Because according to me
Oh-oh oh-oh, you have everything

Oh-oh oh-oh, you drivin' me crazy
My whole, my whole body is shaking
I wear my heart on my sleeve
Because according to me
Oh-oh oh-oh, you have everything

Oh-oh oh-oh, you have everything
Oh-oh-oh-oh, you have everything
Oh-oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh, you have everything
Oh, you have everything
Oh-oh, you have everything
You have everything
You have everything
Fuck
