riding into the morning dew, at dawn eyes on the track, wind's on our back home again in the evening's mood withdrawn still having fun your number one riding free in a field of dreams galloping clouds like i've never seen

we can touch the sky, we can jump this high
we can do anything
we are the saddle club
we can feel the air, we can do our hair
we are the saddle club

fun adventures with three best friends, as one there's nothing more we're looking for all we need is our horse's dreams and the sun we're growing up in the saddle club

we are the saddle club
we can feel the air, we can do our hair
we are the saddle club

we are the saddle club
we can feel the air, we can do our hair
we are the saddle club
