We left home just last week,
We went out to conquer the world,
But things don't always go easy,
And things don't always go well.

First up it was the mountains,
Then it was a hip hopping gats,
Tomorrow we're into Hellsville,
Oh yeah it's nice to be back.
Yeah, yeah, yeah!

Broke and out of money,
Sleazing it and grubby,
Digging for the diamond,
Do you think we'll ever find one?
Cause no one ever gets it,
And if they do they're full of shit,
They're greasy and they're yuppies,
Broke and out of money

Monday blends into Tuesday,
And where were we last night?
Now we're hanging with Luis,
Put that in your stereotype.
Yeah, yeah, yeah!

(Chorus)

I feel like I am doing the right thing,
But why does it have to come down to money?
I feel like I need a drink,
And that's why it always comes down to money?
(X2)

(Chorus X2)
