

Stigmata "My Malice"

Visit "My Malice" on MotoLyrics.com

Peel the flesh of my bone
slowly condone
so I may crumble away alone
must I be denied?
still crucified
so forsake me now...oh...

Why can't I renounce you and refuse you?
When you still bite the hands that feed you
I abhor you, how I loathe you...
you rip open my wounds with a smile...

I can't live to see this world alone
Must I breath with the nails driven into my throat?
Everytime I think about it. Everytime I realize it
You induce me to slip into this concave hole...

Peel the flesh of my bone
slowly condone
so I may crumble away alone
must I be denied?
still crucified
so for sake me now...oh...

Why can't I deny you and despise you?
When you still bite the hands that feed you
Now I trust you.And still soothe you...
While you rip open my soul with a smile..

Peel the flesh of my bone

so I may crumble away alone

Peel the flesh of my bone

so forsake me now...oh...
