And when I thought you said goodbye
Your wilted words trailed my fears
And when you kissed my heart goodnight
I couldn't hide my tears

Now my world has gone wrong
All this hatred grows strong I lament these scars feelings shattered to shards..

X2
I cannot survive here
Rotting now within this cage
I will not relive this hurt memories writhe in dust and hate

why can't I fly away?
you only tore my wings for gain
why can't I fly away?
you only clipped my wings for gain

What now? you stab me while i dream
What now? you burn my sanctuary

why can't I fly away?
you only tore my wings for gain
why can't I fly away?
you only clipped my wings gain
